REQUEST FOR APPEAL

Student Grievance and Title IX Discrimination Hearing Determinations

The appeals process serves to insure students with an impartial review of decisions made within the student disciplinary and grievance process.

GROUNDS FOR APPEALING A TITLE IX HEARING DETERMINATION.

PTC will offer both parties an appeal from a determination regarding responsibility, and from PTC's dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein, on the following bases:

1. A procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter;
2. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made that could affect the outcome of the matter; and
3. The Title IX Coordinator, Investigator(s), or Decision-Maker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual Complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter.

GROUNDS FOR STUDENT GRIEVANCE APPEAL REQUESTS

Appeal requests are limited to the following grounds:

1. An error occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the hearing or determination (e.g. substantiated bias, material deviation from established procedures, etc.); and/or
2. To consider new evidence, unavailable during the original hearing or investigation, that could substantially impact the original finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact must be included; and/or
3. The sanctions imposed are substantially disproportionate to the severity of the violation.
